

2010 Wisconsin Statewide Indicator 14 Data for 2008-2009 Exiters

Indicator 14 is an unduplicated, hierarchical count of what youth with disabilities are doing within one year of leaving high school. Youth who exited high school with a diploma, a certificate of attendance, by earning a high school certificate or by dropping out are contacted for a phone survey by St. Norbert College Survey Center on behalf of the district. The results listed below are based on those youth who responded to the survey for the districts included in the 2010 survey year. Additional survey information and reports can be found at: www.posthighsurvey.org.

All percentages based on current total of 890 statewide respondents
